JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that such sanction would place an undue burden on the defendant's dependents.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Kiet Anh Trieu, is hereby committed on Count One of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 1-day.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 4 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The Court finds that the drug testing requirement as mandated pursuant to statute is ordered waived, as it is determined that the defendant lacks a history of drug or alcohol abuse.
3. The defendant shall reside for a period of 6 months in a residential reentry center

(community corrections component), as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility;

4. The defendant shall participate for a period of 12 months in a home detention program which may include electronic monitoring, GPS, alcohol Monitoring Unit or automated identification systems and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer (pending approval by the Location Monitoring unit). The defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment;
5. The defendant shall pay the costs of Location Monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; and
7. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA sample from the defendant.

The defendant was informed of his right to file an appeal within 14 days of entry of judgment; further, the defendant may file a request for an order for waiver of the filing fee to file his notice of appeal, with the Clerk's Office.

The Court hereby ORDERS the dismissal of Count 2 of the Indictment in the interest of justice.

The Bond is ORDERED exonerated upon the defendant's reporting to the United States Probation Officer.

The Court recommends to the Probation Officer that the defendant be allowed to serve the Court-ordered term of 6 months at a residential reentry center (community corrections center) in West Covina.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
